

Resolutions

By the Main Street Brethren Sunday-school of Meyersdale, Pa., on death of Dr. Beachley.

WHEREAS, Death in his solemn tread has entered our school and called from our midst our much beloved brother Urias M. Beachly, M. D., one of the founders of and life long, active and liberal supporters of our school, and while we submissively bow to the mandates of the stern messenger, we deem it eminently proper that we should express sorrow and regret. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of our brother we have lost one who was liberal, useful, helpful, sociable, loving and true, the community an honorable, upright and noble citizen, the fireside of his home its delight, his wife a loving and faithful companion, his children a kind and affectionate parent.

Resolved, That while in the work of the Master upon earth we shall no more hear his friendly voice yet we will ever cherish him in our memory, and while he will be missed because his seat will be empty, and while in grief we lament this loss, we feel that our loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to our co-laborers, the wife and family of our deceased brother, recognizing our inability to mitigate their sorrows, we would piously commend them in this their affliction to him who alone is able to comfort in time of distress.

Resolved, That by God's grace we will continue in the work of the Sunday school which work he so much loved, esteeming it as one of the means of preparation to again meet with him in heaven where we shall enjoy the never ending joys of the endless eternity.

I have the good news to write you that the Brethren congregation which has been in a state of suspended animation for some months past, resumed business at the old stand last Sunday evening. She donned brand new robes and has evidently made up her mind to keep her place in the ranks of the Lord's army, henceforth. Eld. J. W. Pursely is at the helm and a right able helmsman he is too. Of the 26 on the old register, 8 remain and they are true and tried and will stand by brother J. W. in the battles of the future. The revival season is now full blown in S. W. Va., and will continue till about Aug. 1. Eld. J. S. Bowman is now in Montgomery Co., where he will remain till about the 20th inst. From thence he will go to Boon's Chapel in South Roanoke, and thence to Pittsylvania. May the Lord of the harvest give him an abundant increase.

Important Announcement

To the ministers of the Brethren church in the State of Ohio: Inasmuch as our State Conference is now at hand, will you kindly report to me at your earliest convenience, such items that should be in possession of the moderator in order that he may make a full and complete report. Any information that you can give me concerning your work will be greatly appreciated.

Brother J. C. Cassel paid us a visit over the 23rd and preached an able sermon at this place at 10:30 A. M. The discourse was very much appreciated. We then conveyed him to our mission point some seven miles, where he addressed our young Sabbath school at 3:30 and preached at 8 P. M. I want to say in connection with the above that we have started a promising Sunday school at that point. We are enrolling new pupils every Sabbath since we organized. Time nor space will permit an explanation of this place and its environments. Suffice it to say that an invitation is extended to all whose hearts are burning to do mission work. No kid gloved nor policy preachers needed. Brother Cassel has spent several hundred dollars here to give it a start saying nothing of time nor labors, but God will surely bless consecrated labor and means we are allowing the Holy Spirit to use as he thinks best in this work. This point is known as our Calvary appointment. The work at Ser-geantsville is moving along nicely. Our Sabbath school under the leadership of our worthy superintendent, C. B. Wilson, is increasing in interest and number. The attendance at our preaching service is much better than we even hoped for, taking into consideration the inconvenient place where we meet for worship. But our new church building is getting fairly on the way. To some away from here our work might appear to be moving slow. To such I would say we are trying to do our work well. Dunkerism is some 170 years old in N. J., and the entire membership, Brethren and German Baptists will not reach more than possibly a total of 150 members. If some of our churches in the brotherhood would or could know the effort that our people are making here to plant the gospel alone banner, it would do you good. Pray for us. New Jersey Brethren have no conference. I see no good reason why Eastern Pennsylvania, Maryland and New Jersey couldn't have one. I see the Pennsylvania Conference has left us out entirely so far as their program is concerned. "Where are we at?" We hope to get there if possible and may ask for annexation.

Faternally,

E. H. SMITH.

"BE SURE YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT"

No more sorrowful demonstration of the truth of the above quotation ever occurred than that of late exposure of Prof. E. A. Miller, late president of Lordsburg College, California.

The Philadelphia Enquirer of the 3rd inst. published the confession of Miss Celia Overholtzer, of Lordsburg, of the breaking of the seventh commandment, in which she charged Miller as the partner in her sin. He also made a confession corroborative of hers.

It will be remembered by many readers of the EVANGELIST, that Miller was President of Bridgewater College, in Virginia in 1888-91, before he went to California, and that he was there accused of general immorality.

It will also be remembered that the A. M. of 1891 appointed a committee composed of elder I. D. Parker, Samuel Zug, Ephraim Stoner and Wm. Howe to come to Virginia and try Miller for his misdemeanor. It is a part of the written history of the church that the committee sat four days on the case, and in the full blaze of the most overwhelming evidence of Miller's guilt of most criminal, licentious conduct, they acquitted him of all censure and expelled from the church those who prosecuted him in which were included
